THE FLYING MOORES.

America's Premier Monarchs of the Air, a Free Attraction at Bourbon Fair.

At a great expense Secretary Webber has booked The Flying Moores, celebrated aerial artists, for each of the five days of Bourbon Fair, and everyone will want to see this family of wonderful performers who have pleased crowds at leading parks and state fairs, including the Des Moines, St. Louis, and Dallas fairs.

There is always something exciting and fascinating in an aerial return casting performance and one never tires of watching the daring performers as they swing themselves gracefully through the air from the arms of one to another, turning single and double somersaults in their flights. The immediate danger attached lends spice to their acts.

The Flying Moores consists of three ladies and two men and their engagement is guaranteed to please both the public and fair management.

Negro Man Held On Serious Charge.

Upon a warrant charging him with detaining a woman against her will Dave January, colored, was arrested and is being held in the county jail to await his examination trial which is set for Saturday morning. It is charged that January whose home is at Little Rock insulted Mrs. Virgie Gray, wife of Oscar Gray who is a tenant on the farm of W. J. Reynolds, eight miles from Paris on the Stringtown pike.

The alleged offense was committed Monday and Mrs. Gray, accompanied by her husband, came to Paris late in the afternoon, appearing before Squire L. J. Fretwell and swore out a warrant against January.

Mrs. Gray told a straightforward story. She stated that January came to her home shortly after 3 o'clock Monday afternoon for the purpose, as he said of buying some green beans. As she was in the act of handing the negro the package he seized her by the right wrist. She declared she resisted with all her might at the same time screaming at the top of her voice. This frightened the negro and he walked away. Mrs. Gray showed the imprints of fingernails on her arm as she detailed what had occurred.

The warrant was immediately placed in the hands of Sheriff Thompson, who dispatched Deputies Marshall and Talbott to the scene. The lateness of the hour precluded the arrest of January and the matter of alleged assault was kept secret. Tuesday morning Marshall and Talbott went to the Reynolds farm, where January was engaged at work in a tobacco patch. He was brought to Paris and being arraigned before Judge Denis Dundon, plead not guilty.

His trial was set for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and bail fixed at $500. January, in reply to questions, displayed no uneasiness and asked if he could be allowed to communicate with several well-known farmers in an effort to secure bail and release from custody until the hour set for his trial.

RUMORS OF MOB.

Wednesday night Mayor J. T. Hinton and County Judge Denis Dundon received information that a mob was being formed in an adjoining county and was advancing toward Paris with a view of storming the county jail and lynching Dave January. Acting upon the information received Sheriff A. S. Thompson with his deputies, J. O. Marshall and W. F. Talbott, Chief of Police Elgin, Jailor Farris and other officials were on the alert and ready to resist any effort on the part of a mob to take the negro from the jail. The mob, however, did not put in its appearance but the officers are prepared for any emergency, and the jail will be guarded.

PAYABLE IN ADVANCERoosevelt Turned Down? What!

The more we look at the headline—Colonel Roosevelt Turned Down—the less we believe it. The Colonel will soon come up again smiling. The Administration and Stalwart organs can turn it over as a sweet morsel under their tongues, but the fact is the Republican voters of New York had nothing to say about it. Theodore Roosevelt turned down, and Jim Sherman exalted in his place? Why it's preposterous! Roosevelt the statesman, author and hunter, make place at the head of the Republican column for a third-rate politician? Not much! Who turned Theodore Roosevelt down? The old Guard—the remains of Platt machine—that still controls the Republican State Committee by 20 to 15 as the vote for Sherman and Roosevelt shows.

Will the Republican voters when they elect delegates to the state convention endorse this action? There may be a fight to a finish between the two rival factions for control of the Republican party if the Colonel desires it; and the recommendation of the Old Guard may be turned down and Roosevelt substituted for chairman of the convention in place of Sherman.

The Republican party of the state of New York may be split in twain whichever faction wins. The fight for control of the convention will hardly allow an agreement between the two factions on the platform and on the candidate for governor and other state officers.

President Taft with the power of the Federal patronage, will be for the Old Guard. Governor Hughes would naturally be for Roosevelt for the Old Guard has opposed all of his recommendations for legislation; but he is under great obligations to President Taft, for his appointment as Justice of the Supreme Court, and the prospective appointment as Chief Justice is still in the hands of the President.

It is seldom that the great men of a party are dragged into a fight for supremacy on such a minor matter as—who shall be chairman of the state convention? It shows bitterness and perhaps very bad generalship on both sides; for the real fight is whether progressive or reactionary policies shall prevail not only in New York State but in the Nation.

As the issue is not for office but for policies, the Democrats may well say may the best side win, for you are both bad enough as far as the welfare of the people is concerned.

Our old friend Alfred Henry Lewis seems to have flown the Hearst coop and joined the Socialists; for we hear of his addressing a Socialist encampment in Louisiana where a mob of one hundred broke up the gathering and forced Alfred Henry to quit town.

That "harmony" plan which Taft's young men at Beverly concocted seems to have laden on the rocks; the cargo has been jested, and it will require considerable tugging to get the craft into clear water again.

The new railroad law went fully into effect on August 17, but it will take some months to take evidence, and for the Interstate Commerce Commission to decide if the increase in rates asked for by the railroads is reasonable.

The important question that must soon be decided by the Republicans is whether the insurgent lamb will lie down with the standpat lion, or whether the lamb will be inside the lion.

The price of crude rubber has declined 50 per cent, but the price automobile tires has been advanced 25 per cent by the rubber trust. How does Senator Aldrich explain that?

An English rubber company has just paid a dividend of 120 per cent, and yet some people wonder why Senator Aldrich and Rockefeller have formed a "Rubber Trust."

President Taft is evidently willing to have "peace at any price" between the warring Republican factions.

Discuss Sale of Burley Pool.

Vice President A. L. Ferguson, C. C. Patrick, G. A. Graves, and Fred Stuckey composing the Sales Committee of the Burley Tobacco have returned from New York, where they went to discuss a proposition, so it is stated relative to the sale of the 1909 pooled crop and an option for the purchase of the 1910 crop.

No information as to whom the negotiations were with, or as to the nature of the proposition said to have been made was obtainable at the office of the Burley Society. The report of the Sales Committee it is understood, would be made to the Executive Board which met Tuesday afternoon, and latter referred to the district board which meets in regular monthly session in Lexington Tuesday.

Jailers Will Receive Increase Next Year.

"According to the opinion of Judge Breathitt, handed down a few days ago in response to the latter written him in a regard to the law increasing the salary of the jailers from 50 to 75 cents a day for each prisoner they keep, the increase will not be collectable by the jailers in office at present.

His option was asked by Jailor W. S. Fitzgerald president of the jailers organization, of Kentucky, and is stated above.

The law question was passed by the recent legislature by a unanimous vote and in speaking of it Gov. Wilson said that it was one of the best laws passed during the last session of Legislatures. While the present jailers will not be benefited by the present passage, unless they are re-elected the law will be in force after the regular election held in November 1911.

Law almost the same was passed increasing the salary of circuit judges and according to Attorney General Breathitt this law would not apply to the judges in office, however they contested the decision carrying it to the Supreme Court, where they won the case.

The Jailers' Union meets in London next week and the advisability of litigation will be considered. President Fitzgerald was undecided as to what would be done in regard to the matter but in his opinion the decision would stand and that it would not be fought out in the courts.

In Bad Fix

"I had a mishap at the age of 41, which left me in bad fix," writes Mrs. Georgia Usher, of Conyers, Ga. "I was unconscious for three days, and after that I would have fainting spells, dizziness, nervousness, sick headache, heart palpitation and many strange feelings. "I suffered greatly with ailments due to the change of life and had 3 doctors, but they did no good, so I concluded to try Cardui.

"Since taking Cardui, I am so much better and can do all my housework."

Take CARDUIThe Woman's Tonic

Do not allow yourself to get into a bad fix. You might get in so bad you would find it hard to get out. Better take Cardui while there is time, while you are still in moderately good health, just to conserve your strength and keep you in tip top condition. In this way your troubles, whatever they are, will gradually grow smaller instead of larger—you will be on the up-grade instead of the down—and by and bye you will arrive at the north pole of perfect health. INDIANS' PRIDE.

Native Reserve and Conservatism Keep Them Apart From Whites.

Even among the Five Civilized Tribes there still remain many communities wholly full blood. These people drift together, following their own ideas of life, speaking their own language and retiring before the whites with the same strange reserve and pride that characterized them in their wild state.

Although claiming the name of several Christian denominations and following certain beliefs with devoutness, their ways of thinking, their dislike of innovation and their aversion to work have made them withdraw to the mountain districts. Whether this so called reserve comes from pride or a distrust of the white man or timidity or merely a stubborn conservatism, it produces the same result, the backward and nonprogressive Indian.

There is, too, a certain mystic quality that holds the Indian aloof, says the Southern Workman—a quality that we do not understand and with which there is little sympathy in our everyday life. He is so much of a philosopher that he looks upon our strenuous life with some contempt, dismissing our efforts for personal comfort and material advancement with the remark that "the white man is heap trouble to himself." While people call him lazy because he does not care to exert himself for those things which seem important to whites, yet to some religious ceremonial or some artistic expression his application is persistent, and the "patience of an Indian" has passed into a proverb.

WORKED LIKE A CHARM.

She Joined a Card Club In Order to Forget Her Work.

An Atchison woman who found the monotony of dishwashing, cooking and laundry work proving too much for sanity was urged to join a card club. "It will take your mind off your work," she was told, and so she joined. In order to attend she had to get up that morning an hour earlier to get her work done; a neighbor girl was hired to stay with the baby, and when, flustered, nervous and tired, she left the house fifteen minutes late she was followed by the screams of her three children because they couldn't be taken along. But she had her mind taken off her work at the card party. Of that there is no doubt, for when she made a mislay her partner, a perfect lady, walked right over her, then picked her up and shook her, and then chewed on her for fifteen minutes. She became so frightened that the little wits she had under her hair fled, and she made another mislay with another partner, and this woman, also a perfect lady, talked to her in a way the woman should have been ashamed to talk to a dog. It was more than she could endure, and, weeping like a sprinkling cart, she got up and went home.

"It did even more than it promised," she told her husband. "Nothing has ever happened to me in all my life that so effectively took my mind off my work. Why, there were times when I even forgot I had you and all the children."—Atchison Globe.

Athletics and the Unfit.

Those who are unfit should not indulge in athletic games is a warning by Dr. Woods Hutchinson in Outing.

A boy, for instance, is a little weak after a mild attack of infectious fever, pneumonia, influenza or tonsillitis, and his heart is beating faster and more violently than it should on exertion. But the team wants him or he wants a record, or both, and away he goes into training.

"Suddenly one day the heart can no longer drive on its overload of blood, and down goes the runner or oarsman in an attack of heart failure," and athletics get all the discredit.

The same danger lies when there is no training, the sport being purely informal. It lies also where the girl just convalescent persists in taking part in a long anticipated dance. Only that phase of common sense which is manifested in common prudence is necessary to avoid such perils.

His Other Name.

The candidate for the place of coachman had been weighed and was not wanting, according to his new mistress' lights. Then the question of his name, which was Patrick, came up. The mistress objected to it in her heart, so she explained that it was her custom always to call her coachman by his family name. Had he any objections?

"Not the slightest, ma'am."

"What is your last name, Patrick?"

"Fitzpatrick, ma'am."

Anchored.

A little chap four years of age met with the misfortune to have his hat blown into the river. When he reached home his father said to him:

"It's a wonder you didn't blow overboard too."

"I couldn't," was the quick response. "I was fastened to my feet!"

LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT AT APPALACHIAN EXPOSITION

Splendid Display from Appalachian Region to Be Made September 12 to 17.

Few people realize the magnitude of the live stock exhibit and horse show which will be held in connection with the Appalachian Exposition in Knoxville, Tenn. The live stock exhibit will extend through the first week of the exposition period, the dates for this exhibit being September 12 to 17, inclusive. In perfecting the details for this great exhibit, nothing has been left undone to make it outstanding in every particular.

When the live stock committee was appointed, men were selected who are themselves practical live stock people and who have the interest of this great industry at heart. This committee in turn went into the exhibit work with a vim, and each department consisting of the following: Department A, horses and ponies; B, mules and jack stock; C, beef cattle; D, dairy cattle; E, swine; F, sheep and G, night horse show, has been developed on an equal basis and consequently the admirer of any breed of live stock may expect to see his ideal well represented.

The judges who have been appointed to pass upon the merits of the different live stock exhibits are men of national reputation, and when they give their decisions they will be backed by a well founded and conscientious opinion. The following judges will officiate during the exposition:

For horses and ponies, George Campbell Brown, of Spring Hill, Tenn.; mules and jack stock, John L. Jones, of Columbia, Tenn.; beef cattle, Prof. H. A. Morgan, of Knoxville; dairy cattle, W. Gettys, Athens, Tenn.; swine, Marley Riley, of Thorntown, and S. E. Morten, of Camden, Ohio; sheep, Prof. J. E. Hite, Athens, Ga.; night horse show, Henry Cullins, of Lexington, Ky.

Live Stock Ring.

The live stock building and exhibit grounds are ideal in every particular. The ring for the exhibit of cattle, sheep and hogs is in the form of an oval 100 feet in one direction and seventy-five feet in the other. The arena for the exhibit of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and for the night horse shows is as fine an open-air arena as there is in the United States. The show ring is oval in shape, measuring 225 feet in length and 100 feet in width, completely surrounded by a wooden guard and on the outside of which will be a ten-foot promenade. The seating arrangements are in the form of an amphitheater, almost completely surrounding the ring and has a capacity, when completed, of holding fully ten thousand people. For the night horse show the arena will be beautifully decorated and lighted to such an extent that every thing can be seen practically as well as in day light.

The premium list for the live stock exhibit and the horse show is more liberal than for any similar event in the south and for the night horse show the premium list is equal to any of its kind in the United States. The business men of Knoxville have taken an unusual interest in this part of the exposition and as an evidence of their interest and good faith they are offering a special stake for gaited saddle horses to be known as the Knoxville Business Men's Saddle Horse stake and are giving $500 as the purse. This of itself should undoubtedly bring together the greatest collection of gaited American saddle horses that has ever been seen in this country and it will be unfortunate indeed for any one to have seen the exposition and not to have witnessed the competition between these great horses, for when the ribbons will have been tied, it will practically mean the placing of the same on the finest gaited saddle horses living to-day.

Interest Is General.

Live stock people throughout the southern Appalachian region should by all means visit the live stock exhibit, for it will give them an opportunity to study the different breeds in a practical manner.

The premium list can be obtained with entry blanks from Dr. M. Jacob, chairman of the live stock committee, Knoxville, Tenn.

GOVERNORS WILL ATTEND APPALACHIAN EXPOSITION

The governors of Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama have been invited to attend the Appalachian Exposition in Knoxville, between September 12 and October 12. It is expected that these chief executives will attend, representing their respective states officially. Gov. M. R. Patterson, of Tennessee, will be present on the opening day of the exposition, September 12, and will deliver a formal address and otherwise participate in the opening of the great events.

The Appalachian Exposition has been devised in the interest of the eight states mentioned, and it is expected that thousands will attend from all parts of the various commonwealths. The success of the exposition means further advancement, industrially, commercially, educationally and socially of the state included in the Appalachian region. Consequently the government of the states are manifesting such deep concern in its success.

Negro Held For Forgery.

Upon a charge of forgery, Wallace Kimbrough, a negro aged about 22 years of Little Rock, this county, is being held to answer to the county court for his examining trial in the sum of $200 bond.

Kimbrough, it is alleged, forged the name of Mr. D. B. Robbins, to a check for $25, cashed by Mr. H. M. Collins, of the firm of H. M. Collins & Co. The check, which was drawn on the Citizens Bank of Little Rock, was presented by Kimbrough to Mr. Collins Wednesday evening. The negro purchased a pair of shoes which amounted to $4.50 and received in cash $20.50.

Thursday morning Mr. Collins became suspicious of the check and communicated with Mr. Robbins, who informed him that the check was a forgery. The negro was located near Little Rock and was taken into custody by Marshall James Gibson of North Middletown, who brought him to Paris where he was arraigned in Judge Denison's court.

Mr. Collins identified the negro as the one who had been in his store and who presented the forged check. In court the negro stoutly protested his innocence, disclaiming all knowledge of the offense. His examining trial was set for Thursday, September 15. His bond which was fixed at $200 was furnished by Mr. Nelson Gillespie of near Little Rock, on whose farm he was employed.

Delegates Selected by Paris Lodge.

Lexington is making extensive preparations for the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the State of Kentucky which will meet in that city Oct. 11. Thousands of visitors from all over the state will attend the meeting, during which time the new $100,000 addition to the Widows' and Orphans' home will be dedicated. Delegates from the local lodge of Odd Fellows to the Grand Lodge Meeting have been elected as follows: E. B. January C. Arnsperger, James Daugherty, W. C. Dodson, Perry J. McCord R. F. Clendenin J. R. Stivers, James H. Rye, W. S. Kiser, Chas. W. Fothergill and Chas. Clendenin. The delegates will be headed by Judge January, who has been elected as a delegate from the Bourbon Lodge to the meeting of the grand body for the seventeenth consecutive year. Mr. January is regarded as one of the best posted members of the fraternity in Kentucky, and his election for the seventeenth consecutive years as a delegate to represent the Bourbon Lodge is a fitting compliment to the interest and knowledge displayed in lodge matters when he represented the local order in the grand body of former occasions.

BASE BALL.

TUESDAY.

The Bourbonites reversed matters with the Lawmakers in the last game of the series in this city Tuesday afternoon, winning the contest by a score of 6 to 2. The locals set the pace in the opening session and maintained the lead throughout cinching the game in the eighth inning, when with two sacks occupied Scott pelted the squire and circled the bases.

The locals started out in a whirl after the Senators had been retired in the first inning, Kuhlman leading off with a clean drive to left, made second on a pass ball and third on a wild throw. McKernan looked dangerous and was given a pass, and pilfered second. On an attempted squeeze Kuhlman was run down between third and home McKernan making third on the out. Kaiser doubled to left scoring McKernan. Goodman flied to Angemier and on the out was well on the way to third when the throw from Angemier struck him in the back the ball rolling to the center of the diamond, and he crossed the rubber. Barnett fanned retiring the side.

The locals added another in the inning following. Scott led off with a single through short and was advanced a peg on Chapman's sacrifice, took third on a pass ball and scored on Holder's hit to left. Holder stole second. Poole and Kuhlman hit into outs.

The Senators made their only two tallies in the third after two were down. Seebach grounded to McKernan and Schaffer fanned. Harrell reached first on Scott's wild throw and stole second, scoring on Hoffman's single through second. Beard followed with a double that sent Hoffman over the plate. Angemier grounded to Scott for the third out.

The visitors came up looking dangerous in the fourth. Bohannon opened with a stinging drive to left for two bases and was sent to third on Hick's sacrifice. At this point Poole tightened up fanning Seebach and forcing Hicks to ground for the third out.

In the session following a brilliant catch by Kaiser resulted in a double robbed the visitors of a run. Schaffer had gone out on a grounder to McKernan and Harrell singled. Hoffman slapped one on the nose that looked good for three bases when Kaiser by a sensational running catch pulled down the fly and threw perfectly to McKernan who relayed the ball to Barnett doubling Harrell, who when the ball was hit was well on the road to third.

The locals put a damper on the hopes of the visitors when in the eighth they sent three runs over the rubber, after two men had been retired. Goodman started the trouble by smashing the ball to left for two bases. Fearing that Barnett would put the ball away Schaffer gave him a pass. Scott for the third time hit safely into the left territory and before the ball could be recovered he had circled the bases, sending in two men ahead of him.

Poole was batted for a total of ten hits, which he managed to keep sufficiently scattered to be of little benefit to his opponents. While the locals secured two less than that number off of Schaffer, they came at times when most needed. The features of the game was the batting of Scott and the brilliant work of Kuhlman, McKernan, Holder, Kaiser and Chapman for Paris. Score:

Colts and Bourbonites Meet Today.

For the first of the seven remaining games to be played between Paris and Lexington, the Colts and Bourbonites will meet at White Park this afternoon, and from the rivalry existing between the two clubs a fast and furious contest is likely.

The Colts are coming to Paris with a view of taking this game, and from the classy ball the club from the Fayette capital has been putting up recently the league leaders will have something to do to keep the Colts down.

Contrary to the reports that have been given out that there are yet nine games to be played between Paris and Lexington, it has figured out that there are but seven, three of which are to be played in Paris and four in Lexington. On the season's series so far Paris is leading over the Colts by one game, having won ten and lost nine.

Paris is now leading the league by a margin of near a hundred points over Lexington, who is her closest rival, but a turn in the form of the Paris players would be disastrous, even in the face of such a strong lead. Giving Lexington one the best in the seven games remaining would make but little change in the percentage, provided, however, Paris could keep plugging away at the other league clubs at the furious rate she has during the season. In event Paris should take a slump there might be a chance of Lexington heading her off, but at the same steady go she has traveled all season will wear the pennant will float over White Park.

At any rate Lexington has not given up the hope of landing in the upper berth and is working steadily with this in view. If nothing more she will try to strengthen her hold on second position while Winchester, Richmond and Frankfort are in a pretty scramble over the show honors. It is not known who McKernan will send in against the Colts this afternoon, but he will pick the man from his pitching staff who he thinks is the most likely one to give the Colts a drubbing.

Paris is the best on the season's series with every club in the league. Following is the record:
Lexington—won 10; lost 9.
Frankfort—won 11; lost 10.
Winchester—won 14; lost 10.
Richmond—won 15; lost 7.
Mayville (Shelbyville)—won 18; lost 3.

At home Paris has won 39 games and lost 16; abroad she has won 29 games and lost 23.

Monday being Labor Day, the Senators will come over for two games, one in the morning at ten o'clock and the second in the afternoon at 3:30.

McCormick Improving.

A letter was received by President J. W. Bacon of the Paris Base Ball Club, from Milton J. McCormick, the star southpaw twirler of the Bourbonite aggregation, who has been confined to his home in Houstonville, Ky., with an attack of typhoid fever, states that he is rapidly recovering from his illness. McCormick left Paris about five weeks ago for his home at Houstonville to take a short rest and while there he was stricken with typhoid. He will not be able to pitch again this season and his absence from the Paris club will be keenly felt during the last few weeks of the base ball season.

Acting Governor Pardons Paris Negro.

Acting Governor Cox yesterday pardoned Burnam Brown, a negro sent to the penitentiary from this city for life under the habitual criminal law. Brown is only 28 years old, but has spent fourteen years in the penitentiary. His last offense was shooting his sweetheart. This pardon is the only one ever recommended by Commonwealth Attorney Robert Franklin and that was why Gov. Cox granted it.

German Carp Appear in Stoner.

A school of German carp made its appearance in Stoner creek a few days ago, and owing to the clearness of the water several persons have seen them. The school numbers six or seven and those who have seen the fish state that they range in length from six to eight feet. About twenty years ago Stoner was stocked with this species of fish from the government fisheries. Since that time every effort has been made to rid the stream of the carp, which destroys the smaller fish. Should the water of Stoner remain clear several local fishermen will make an effort to land some of the big fish.

An Especially Good Show Tonight.

Manager Porter of the Paris Grand, promises an especially good program at his popular place of amusement tonight. As a sort of sample of what he is going to have every night next week during the Bourbon Fair he has secured for tonight and Saturday two double acts which are headliners in the big cities.

Merry Brothers, banjoists, is a European act which has been in this country only a few weeks. They have had the rare distinction of appearing by special order before King Edward. Their act is one of the best of its kind before the public, and have been working during the past two months on the Keith and Proctor Circuit houses, where the price of admission ranges from 25 cents to one dollar.

Another splendid act is the Sterlings, in one of the neatest and most refined acts ever seen here. The costuming of the act is said to be especially elaborate. This is also one of the big time acts.

In the moving picture line Manager Porter promises something exceptionally good, though it would seem hard for him to improve over what he has had in that line recently.

On Saturday night Mr. Porter will give away a very handsome $35 Axminster rug. He is exhibiting it every night at the grand, and it is a prize well worth at living for.

Beginning Monday night and continuing throughout the week of the Bourbon Fair, Mr. Porter is going to excel all his best efforts. He promises an entertainment each night equal to if not exceeding anything seen in Cincinnati. In addition he is going to give away each night a prize to some lucky person in both the gallery and the lower floor. In spite of all this expense the trade mark still holds good: "And all for ten cents."

Accidentally Shot by Playmate.

As the result of an accidental discharge of a 22-calibre rifle in the hands of his playmate, Andrew Raney, aged 13 years, Ralph Ballard, aged 8, is in a serious condition at the St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, and may lose his left leg from the effects of his injury. The accident occurred Tuesday afternoon at the home of young Ballard, on the corner of Fifteenth and Main streets. The two boys were playing with the rifle when it was suddenly discharged, the bullet entering the Ballard boy's leg just above the knee, severing the main artery and the lead-ers.

Young Ballard is a son of Mr. J. H. Ballard, who is employed at the Paris Monumental Works. Drs. Kenney and Dudley attended the injured boy and he was immediately removed to the Lexington Hospital. The nature of his injury is such that it is feared his leg may have to be amputated.

Free Liver Remedy

It is well to stop a physical ailment at the first sign of its approach, and that is especially true of liver trouble, which can eventually give rise to so many serious complications. Many have liver trouble and imagine it is indigestion, and hence take the wrong remedy.

When the liver does not store up sufficient gastric juices it becomes sluggish, and in this way disturbs the stomach and bowels, with which it is supposed to work in harmony. This causes the yellow complexion, the pimply face, the dull pain in the forehead, the thinning of the blood, etc. A very quick and sensible way to stop the trouble as well as to cure it is by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which contains ingredients especially intended to promote the activity of the liver.

Among the many thousands who have written the doctor about the results achieved with his remedy, and who are glad to make the facts public so that others can help themselves, are Mr. Jas. Kennedy, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. S. A. La Rue of Smith's Grove, Ky., and many others.

These, like thousands of others, started the use of Syrup Pepsin with a sample. If you will send your name and address you can also obtain a free trial bottle. This will prove to you that liver trouble is promptly cured with this remedy or money will be refunded. Having tried it you can then buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and the latter is sufficient for an entire family.

This remedy is a vast improvement over cathartic tablets and salts, which only do good for the time being. Syrup Pepsin is permanent in its results, is pleasant to take and does not gripe. It is especially good for all those who cannot stand a violent purgative. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." $6,600 In Purses For Races at Exposition

Six Days Race Meeting, September 12 to 17, Arranged as a Feature of Appalachian Exposition.

One of the very attractive features of the Appalachian exposition at Knoxville, Tenn., will be the six days' race meeting, September 12 to 17. In order to put this race meeting on a basis which would be to the keeping with the extensive scope of the exposition, it has set aside $6,600 to be given in purses, making it decidedly the largest event of the kind ever attempted in East Tennessee. In order to provide ample accommodations, the exposition, in addition to the above sum, is spending several thousand dollars on a new grandstand. The large number of horsemen who will race at this meeting are also being well provided for. An expert engineer is now at work regrading and resurfacing the track, making it one of the best and perhaps the fastest in the south. The Exposition company is a member of the National Trotting association, and the racing will be given under the direction of a licensed starting judge, assuring the race-loving public perfectly fair racing. There will be two harness events and two running races each day. As the harness horses race the best three out of five, there will be at least eight starts daily.

The following purses are to be offered:

September 12.
2:30 Pace, purse.....$400
Free-for-All Trot.....$400

George A. Melvin, a widely known starting judge from Columbus, O., has been engaged by the racing committee to have charge of the meeting September 12 to 17. Judge Melvin works under license of the National Trotting association, in which association the Appalachian Exposition company has membership.

The Exposition company is spending several thousand dollars on the half-mile track near exposition grounds, resurfacing, throwing up turns, putting in new stables, city water, etc., and can promise one of the best tracks in the country.

Arrangements have been made with railroads whereby horsemen can ship to this meeting on half freight rate. As in the past, all horse owners visiting Knoxville will receive liberal treatment. Passenger rates are only a cent a mile, the lowest ever given to any exposition.

General conditions for these races are:

Harness Races—All races mile heats, 3 in 5, except 2-year-olds, 2 in 3, 5 per cent to enter and 5 per cent from winners. Money divided $50, $25, $15 and $10. Records after August 22 no bar. Hobbies allowed. Right reserved to reject any entry, declare off or change order for any good cause. Five to enter and three to start. Horse distancing field or any part thereof entitled to first money only. Members National Trotting association.

Running Races—Made up day before start. We hope to continue running races for one or two weeks after this meet, and will arrange races to suit horses present.

Further information will be cheerfully furnished by J. W. Brownlee, secretary, Knoxville, Tenn.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

Beneficial Results Assured by Lavish Expenditure of Money.

That the Appalachian Exposition, to be held at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 12 to Oct. 12, will be an unqualified success, from every standpoint, is already vouchsafed. The object with which it is given, the public spirit diffused into it, the big brain, the broad and progressive head, the lavish expenditure of money, utilized by the master-hand of men of brains, in carrying out the objects of its original and pretentious features, is an abundant guarantee that the Appalachian Exposition will be fruitful of the most beneficial results and one of the greatest events that has ever occurred in the onward march of progress in the South, and especially the Appalachian district.

WALTER A. WOOD MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1887 it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. That same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because genuine under-draft is possible only with the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood Mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are: the easiest running; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair and longest lived. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

A CORROBORATION.

Of Interest to Paris Readers.

For months Paris citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Paris residents. Would these prominent people commend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? No stronger proof of merit can be had than cures that have stood the test of time. The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Paris reader.

Mrs. J. W. Huffman, 115 North Main Street, Paris, Ky., says: "I gladly corroborate the public statement I gave in 1905 in which I made the fact known that I had used Doan's Kidney Pills with satisfactory results. I had sharp pains across my back and kidneys and at times I was so miserable I could hardly attend to my work. Headaches and dizzy spells were also common. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all these symptoms of disordered kidneys and I have never had a return attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SHARK PRODUCTS.

Even the Bones Are Useful, the Spine
as a Walking Stick.

Products obtained from the shark
are both numerous and valuable.
Shark fins furnish a jelly that makes a delicious soup, if one may credit the statements of those affecting that delicacy. There is an excellent market for this jelly wherever Chinese are to be found.

The shark's liver gives a splendid clear oil excellently adapted for the lubrication of the parts of watches, clocks and fine guns. This oil is held in some quarters in as high esteem as is the oil obtained from porpoise and dogfish liver, long claimed to be the finest of animal oils.

Sharkskin is of much value. It is of a beautiful burnished gray or bluish color and at first glance looks like finely grained leather by reason of the tiny prickles plentifully set one way.
There are so many of these prickles, quite invisible to the naked eye, that the effect afforded by the dried skin is one of rich beauty, a quality that makes it particularly valuable for the manufacture of shagreen. It is employed for many decorative purposes.

Even the bones of sharks are useful.
The spine is in constant demand by the manufacturers of curious walking sticks. They pass a thin malacca or steel rod through the polished and round vertebrae, and the result is a cane that sells for a high price. The shark spine stick is a great favorite in Germany.—Harper's Weekly.

BULL BAITING.

A Brutal "Sport" That Was Popular in Former Days.

The principle of bull baiting was extremely simple. A collar was fastened round the bull's neck, and by this the bull was attached by a rope to a stake. The rope varied from nine to fifteen feet in length and therefore allowed the bull but little movement.
The audience was accommodated in a circle or "ring."

The bulldog's duty was to grasp the bull's nose, and when he had succeeded in obtaining a grip he was required to maintain his hold, despite the efforts of the larger animal to dislodge him. The bull awaited the attack with lowered horns, which the dog sought to evade by crouching toward the head of his opponent. Sometimes the bull managed to get his horns under or into the dog, which was then thrown high into the air.

Writers state that dogs had been tossed up to a height of thirty or forty feet. The dog, if he survived, would "retire hurt." On the other hand, once the dog, which was trained to grip only the nose, obtained a hold his adversary would have little chance of shaking him off. The bull would whirl the dog in the air and struggle frantically to wrench his nose free from the terrible grip. When, from sheer exhaustion, the dog dropped clear of the bull
a fresh dog was sent into the ring.

Photographing a Panther.
A panther is not easily killed and will often revive with very unpleasant results, as on a certain occasion in the Deccan. He appeared to be quite dead, and one of the spectators rushed up with a camera on a stand to obtain a picture of the supreme moment. He got his photograph, and, strange to say, it survived what followed, but no sooner had he taken it than the panther revived, tore himself loose and went for the photographer. Somehow the man escaped, but the camera was sent flying, and, disconcerted by his encounter with it, the panther turned and made for the nearest tree, up which he went as quickly as a monkey.
Now, the tree was crowded with interested spectators, and for three or four strenuous seconds until the panther was shot we enjoyed a spectacle of natives dropping to earth with loud thuds like ripe plums from a jungle plum tree as the panther approached them.—Wide World Magazine.

All Weather Good.

Sunshine is delicious, rain is refreshing, wind braces up, snow is exhilarating; there is really no such thing as bad weather; only different kinds of good weather.—John Ruskin

NEW GUINEA PYGMIES.

The Spear and Bow and Poisoned Arrows Their Chief Weapons.

Our knowledge of the pygmies of New Guinea shows that in habit they are nomadic, nowhere tilling the ground, but depending for their living entirely on their skill in hunting and fishing. Their chief weapon is the bow, their arrows being generally poisoned either with the famous upas
or some other similar vegetable poison,
in some cases a species of strychnine.
They also make use of the spear and an ingenious form of spring gun which is common to numerous other forest tribes. This is formed by setting a flattened bamboo spear attached to a bent sapling, which is fastened to a trigger in such a way that it is released by the passerby stumbling against an invisible string stretched across a game track. These spears are really set for game, and to the initiated they are obvious enough, as their presence is always indicated by certain well known signs, such as a broken off twig placed in a cleft stick.
In war these signs are removed, the removal being equivalent to the moving of buoys in a mined channel. The wounds inflicted by these hardened bamboo spears are necessarily serious.
The mental qualities of the Negritos are extremely undeveloped, none of them being able to express a higher numerical idea than three, but all observers who have met them unite in saying that they are a merry little people, with great ideas of hospitality when their confidence has been gained and provided they have not been previously ill treated. They are not cannibals and are generally monogamous.

LIGHTNING FLASHES.

Many Things Concerning Them That Science Cannot Fathom.

A young girl in charge of two children, sheltering under a tree on Chis-hurst common, was struck by lightning and killed—one of those dreadful instances of the sort of personal touch with which lightning seems to select its victim, for, though one child is reported to have been thrown down, neither apparently was injured. There are many instances, of course, of this strange selection, due in most cases probably to some accident of clothing.
There is a well remembered case which happened some years ago at Cambridge, when three young men were walking across an open space of ground, and the middle one of the three was struck dead, while the others were untouched. The inquest showed that the young man who was killed had nails in his boots, whereas the others were wearing boating shoes.
The phenomena of thunderstorms have been the subject of much study in America. But if thunderstorms can be classified, they are still not thoroughly understood. We do not yet know what are the exact conditions which lead to a discharge of electricity in the form of a lightning flash from cloud to cloud or from cloud to earth.
We cannot reproduce thunder and lightning in a laboratory. We do not know what is the origin of the electrification manifested in a storm.—
London Spectator.

Tickling the Debtors.

John Barrett was only twenty-seven years old when President Cleveland appointed him minister to Siam. The first important task which confronted the youthful envoy was to press a claim against the Siamese government for $1,000,000. Experienced ambassadors warned him against using threats
in obtaining the money. "Be cunning;
avoid arrogance," they said.
"That is," responded Mr. Barrett,
"you favor tickling with a straw to pricking with a bayonet."
The statesmen nodded assent.
When the young minister had finally succeeded in collecting the claim the ambassadors asked in astonishment,
"How did you accomplish it?"
"By tickling," explained Barrett. "I had to tickle them almost to death, though, before they agreed to pay it."

Quaint Remedies.

Among the members of the Greek church in Macedonia the following recipes are regarded as highly useful:
To pacify one's enemies write the psalm "Known In Judea," dissolve it in water and give your enemy to drink thereof, and he will be pacified. For a startled and frightened man take three dry chestnuts and sow thistle and three glasses of old wine and let him drink thereof early and late. Write also "In the beginning was the word"
and let him carry it.

Plump Birdie.

She (after the service)—You dreadful fellow! Why did you smile during the offertory? He—I couldn't help it.
There was Miss Addie Pose singing "Had I the wings of a dove." The mental picture of a 200 pounder trying to fly with a pair of four inch wings was too much for me.

In Bohemia.

"How did you enjoy her bohemian
evening?"
"It wasn't much. Both the epigrams and the sandwiches were stale."—
Washington Herald.

Sure Sign.

"How do you know they're married?"
"Can't you see? He's making her bait her own fishhooks."—Detroit Free Press.

The Added Part.

"Church—Does your neighbor play that cornet without notes? Gotham—
Yes, but not without comments."—
Yonkers Statesman.

Stevenson's Morning Prayer.

The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us to play the man and perform them with laughter and kind faces. Let cheerfulness abound with industry. Give us to go blithely on our business all this day, bring us to our resting beds weary and content and undishonored, and grant us in the end the gift of sleep.

Stopped the Wheels of Justice.

Somebody scattered snuff in the night court of New York one evening recently. A line of policemen sneezed one after another as if they were answering to their names. "If I find out who scattered this sneeze powder," said the magistrate, "I'll send him to the workhouse for—at least—30 days." Open windows finally cleared the air.

MATRIMONIAL.

—The Courier-Journal of Tuesday says:

"The marriage of J. Bruce Hardesty, of Lexington, and Miss Cora B. Wilcox, of Paris, was performed at 3:30 o'clock by the Rev. Leonard W. Doolan in the parlors of his home 116 Cherokee road. The marriage was a quiet one, owing to a recent bereavement in the family of the bride. Mr. Hardesty and Miss Wilcox arrived in Louisville Monday morning from Lexington and were met by D. L. Hardesty, brother of the groom, and J. M. Chilton, law partner of Senator Bradley, who made all arrangements for the wedding.

"The coming of the couple to Louisville was not in the nature of an elopement, as preparations for the marriage had been completed several months ago. The wedding was to have taken place at the home of the bride in Bourbon County, but on account of the death of Mrs. Wilcox, mother of the young woman it became necessary to alter the plans in regard to an elaborate home wedding. It was then decided to come to Louisville and have the ceremony performed in the presence of only near relatives and friends.

Following the ceremony the young couple registered at The Seelbach and after a day or two in Louisville they will visit the Ohio Valley Exposition in Cincinnati, and from there go to Michigan for two weeks.

"The groom is a prominent business man of Lexington, and at the conclusion of their honeymoon the young couple will live in Lexington in a handsome new home recently built by the groom."
